Yeswanta Rao, who was one of the minor Plaintiffs in the above mentioned appeal, has himself now petitioned to H. H. the Maharaja, praying for a re-consideration of the orders passed against him as stated above. This petition has been forwarded to this Office for disposal, ~~under~~ under cover of the Private Secretary's Memo No. 523, dated 24th August 1906.

Beyond stating that the Stamp papers used for the Deed of Gift on which the Defendant bases his claim was not of the kind in use at the time the deed was executed, and also beyond producing an authenticated copy of an Order passed by Govt in the General & Revenue Deptt noticing the untrustworthy character of the defendant, the plaintiff has not urged any fresh grounds in support of his case.

This is an application, addressed to H.H. the Maharaja, praying a second review of the Govt. order passed by the Council committee.

In addition to the grounds mentioned in the above note, the petr. urges that as it has already been held by Govt. in N.S. 188 of 92-93 that the donee was Krishnacharya it was a final pronouncement & should not have been reopened in any subsequent case between the same parties or their representatives in interest. This argument is answered in para 3 of the order under revision, in which it is stated that the above statement cannot have the force of a finding as it does not occur in the body of the decision, but in the resume of the facts of the case.

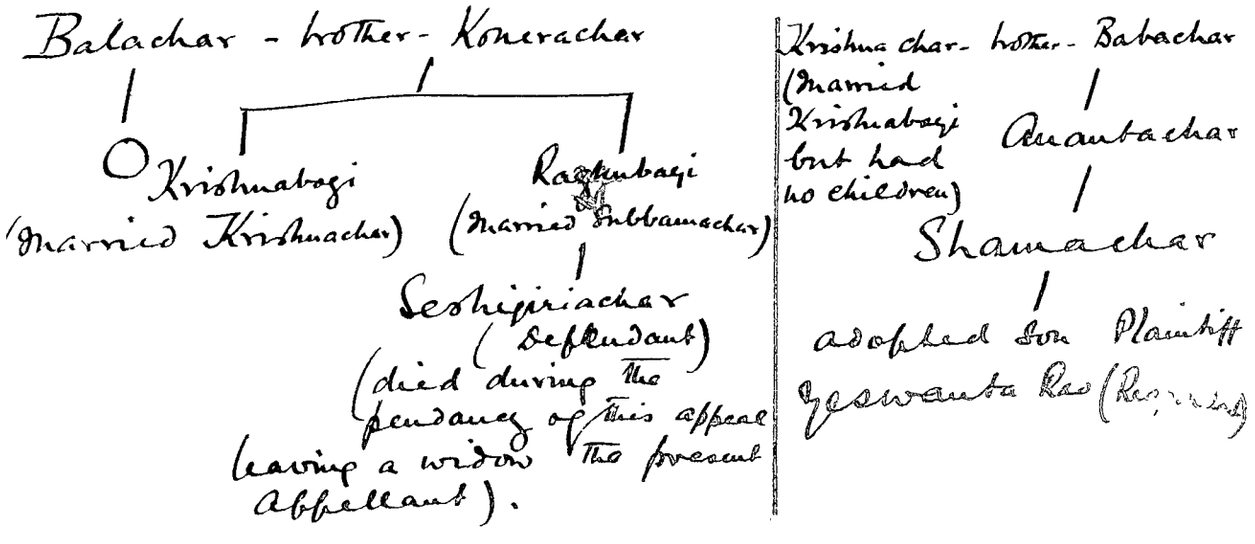
Decision.

This is a dispute in connection with the Puja haq of the Anjaneyaswami Temple at Hanasoge, with the Inam land attached to it. The haq in question originally belonged to one Balachar who died some 60 or 70 years ago. He had a brother by name Koneracher who pre-deceased him leaving behind him two minor daughters named Krishnabayi and Rangubayi. Balachar had no children. He brought up his orphan nieces and married them to one Krishnachar and Subbannachar respectively. Both the parties to this suit claim under a gift from Balachar. They are however at variance as to the nature of the gift, one side, viz, the Plaintiff, alleging that the gift was in favor of Krishnachar alone and for his own benefit, and the other, viz, the Defendant, contending that it was in favor of both Krishnachar and Subbannachar, and not on their own account but on behalf of their wives, the nieces of the donor. The Amildar and the Assistant Commissioner accepted the former version and rejected the latter. In the result the suit was allowed. Hence this ap-peal.

2. For a proper understanding and appreciation of the case, the relationship between the parties is shewn in the geneological tree below:



3. The Plaintiff relies upon a deed of gift dated 1835 which is alleged to have been supressed by the other side and of which therefore he produces a copy. The genuineness of this document is impugned and has not been satisfactorily established. Reliance ~~was~~ is placed upon the order of Government in Appeal No: 188 of 1892-93 in which a reference has been made to a gift in favor of Krishnachar, but it appears clear that that reference cannot have the force of a finding, occurring as it does, not in the body of the decision but in the resume of the facts of the case. It cannot moreover affect the Defendant who was not a party to that proceeding. Certain statements made on diverse occasions by Krishnabayi are next relied on, but the Government are of opinion that there is nothing in those statements to justify the contention based upon them. They do not necessarily show that the gift was one made either in Krishnachar's sole name or for his own benefit. The Defendant cannot moreover be held bound by them or by the Karar executed by Krishnabayi to Anantachar in 1879. The conduct of the Defendant's husband Seshigiriachar is said to militate against the Defendant's present assertion, but here too Government are unable to agree with the authorities below. Krishnabayi undoubtedly had an interest in the subject matter of this litigation and the fact that she was assisted by Seshigiriachar in the conduct of certain proceedings connected with the assertion of that interest and in the performance of puja in the temple does not show that the latter had himself no interest in the haq or that he was estopped from asserting it. Lastly, certain Jri Inamati accounts have been relied upon as evidence of Krishnachar's exclusive ownership. In the view, however, that Government have taken of the case, these accounts cannot be accepted as con-conclusive evidence, contradicted as they are by an earlier account, the authenticity of which they see no reason to question.

4. And now coming to the case set up by the Defendant, Government find that, in addition to the evidence which will be referred to later on, the balance of probabilities is quite in its favor. Balachar had no interest in Krishnachar except as the husband of one of his nieces, and he was not therefore likely to have given away his property to him to the detriment not only of that niece but also of the other niece. This disposition evidenced by the deed of gift relied upon by the Defendant is a perfectly natural one. Balachar was anxious that the haq should not pass out of the family and he accordingly gave it to both these girls at the time of their marriage with the condition attached that, in the event of one of them dying without male issue, her half share should pass to the other. As regards the evidence, Government are satisfied that the document comes from proper custody and that it has all the appearance of a genuine instrument. Being a very old document, the law presumes its genuineness. It is engrossed upon a stamp paper expressly purchased for the purpose. Its existence was referred to in a deposition given by Krishnabayi so far back as 5/2/1889. Again, a plaint filed by herself and Seshigiriachar on 8/9/1891 makes mention of it. The Assistant Commissioner is in error in suspecting that it must have come into existence in 1893 when the case between Krishnabayi and Shamachar was before Government. The gift in favor of both the nieces represented by their husbands has been expressly mentioned in the marginal note to the Jari Inamati account for the year 1831. There is nothing suspicious about this note. It is the same handwriting as the rest of the account and and its age and appearance must be given due weight. The only thing that could be said against it is that the copy maintained in the Huzur Records does not contain a similar note. Government do not however attach much importance to this circumstance, inasmuch as the last mentioned paper does not profess to be a verbatim copy of the original. It is shorter and less descriptive, and this is not the only shara which is found in the original but is absent in the copy. It is noteworthy that even the admitted gift of certain Bhatamanyam lands to Subbannachar in 1831 which is referred to in the original by a marginal shara has not found a corresponding place in the said copy, or even in the copy for the two subsequent years. A list of variations between the Huzur copy and the Taluk original has been prepared and attached to this decision. The conduct of Seshigiriachar throughout seems to show that he always regarded himself as the owner of a half share in the haq in question. Neither the possession of Krishnachar who died in 1876 nor that of Krishnabayi who died in 1896 has been shewn to have been adverse to Rajubayi or her son Sheshigiria Char. Under these circumstances, Government have no hesitation in coming to the conclusion that the Plaintiff has not substantiated his case while the Defendant has.

7. There remains the question whether in spite of the above finding the suit is entitled to succeed. Government are of opinion that it is not. The Plaintiff can only claim as a lineal descendant of Krishnachar. But that individual had no title of his own to the haq, having merely been his wife's agent in regard to her half share which on the death of that woman without male issue passed under the terms of the gift to her sister's son, the Defendant's husband Seshi-

Seshigiriachar, who already owned the other half; and on the latter's demise the whole descended to the Defendant under the law of succession. The law recognizes gifts of this kind, i.e., gifts accompanied by a condition that the property should pass to another in a particular event, vide Mayne's Hindu Law, 5th. Edition, para 350. That being so, it follows that the Defendant's title is unassailable and that the Plaintiff's suit should be thrown out.

9. The appeal is accordingly allowed and the suit dismissed.

ಸಂಪಾದಕರಿಗೆ ಪತ್ರ

ಮಾನ್ಯರೇ,

ಕಳೆದ ಕೆಲವು ವಾರಗಳಿಂದ ನಿಮ್ಮ ಪತ್ರಿಕೆಯಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರಕಟವಾಗುತ್ತಿರುವ ಕಾವೇರಿ ನದಿ ನೀರು ಹಂಚಿಕೆ ಕುರಿತ ಚರ್ಚೆಯನ್ನು ಗಮನಿಸಿದ್ದೇನೆ. ಈ ವಿಷಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಕೆಲವು ಸ್ಪಷ್ಟನೆಗಳನ್ನು ನೀಡಲು ಬಯಸುತ್ತೇನೆ.

ಕಾವೇರಿ ಜಲ ನಿರ್ವಹಣಾ ಪ್ರಾಧಿಕಾರವು ಜೂನ್ ತಿಂಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ಬಿಡುಗಡೆ ಮಾಡಬೇಕಾದ ನೀರಿನ ಪ್ರಮಾಣವನ್ನು ನಿಗದಿಪಡಿಸಿದೆ. ಆದರೆ ಮಳೆಯ ಕೊರತೆಯಿಂದಾಗಿ ಜಲಾಶಯಗಳಲ್ಲಿ ನೀರಿನ ಮಟ್ಟ ಗಣನೀಯವಾಗಿ ಕಡಿಮೆಯಾಗಿದೆ. ಇಂತಹ ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲಿ ಎಲ್ಲ ಪಾಲುದಾರರೂ ಸಹಕಾರ ತತ್ತ್ವದಡಿ ಕಾರ್ಯನಿರ್ವಹಿಸಬೇಕಾಗಿದೆ.

ಕೆಲವರು ಈ ಹಂಚಿಕೆಯನ್ನು ಅನ್ಯಾಯವೆಂದು ಹೇಳುತ್ತಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಆದರೆ ಇದು ಕೇವಲ ಒಂದು ರಾಜ್ಯದ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆಯಲ್ಲ, ಇಡೀ ಜಲಾನಯನ ಪ್ರದೇಶದ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆ. ಎಲ್ಲರೂ ಸ್ವಲ್ಪ ಸ್ವಲ್ಪ ತ್ಯಾಗ ಮಾಡಿದರೆ ಮಾತ್ರ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆ ಬಗೆಹರಿಯಲು ಸಾಧ್ಯ.

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Appeal No. 91 of 1903-04.

Appellant	Versus	Respondents
Seshagiriachar (dead), his widow Pillubayi alias Ramabayi appears and is substituted.		1. Gothubayi 2. Yesvanta Rao, minors, by guardian Bhima Rao.

Subject.

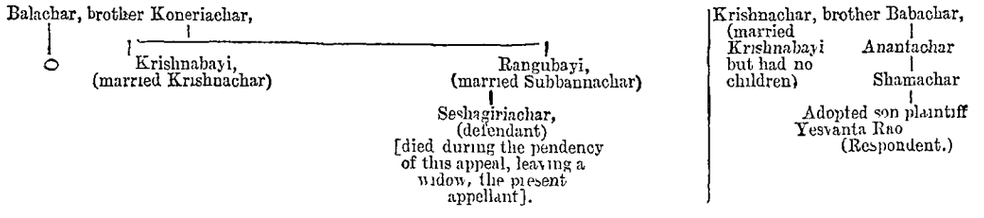
Second appeal against the decree of the Muzrai Assistant Commissioner, Mysore District, decreeing to the respondent, the puja hak of the Anjaneyaswami temple at Hanasoge, Yedatore Taluk, with the Inam land attached to it.

The facts of the case appear sufficiently from the following :—

Decision.

This is a dispute in connection with the puja hak of the Anjaneyaswami temple at Hanasoge, with the Inam land attached to it. The hak in question originally belonged to one Balachar, who died some 60 or 70 years ago. He had a brother by name Koneriachar, who predeceased him leaving behind him two minor daughters named Krishnabayi and Rangubayi. Balachar had no children. He brought up his orphan nieces and married them to one Krishnachar and Subbannachar, respectively. Both the parties to this suit claim under a gift from Balachar. They are however at variance as to the nature of the gift, one side, viz., the plaintiff, alleging that the gift was in favor of Krishnachar alone and for his own benefit, and the other, viz., the defendant, contending that it was in favor of both Krishnachar and Subbannachar and not on their own account but on behalf of their wives, the nieces of the donor. The Amildar and the Assistant Commissioner accepted the former version and rejected the latter. In the result the suit was allowed. Hence this appeal.

2. For a proper understanding and appreciation of the case, the relationship between the parties is shown in the geneological tree below :—



Balachar, brother Koneriachar,
Krishnabayi, (married Krishnachar)
Rangubayi, (married Subbannachar)
Seshagiriachar, (defendant) [died during the pendency of this appeal, leaving a widow, the present appellant].
Krishnachar, brother Babachar, (married Krishnabayi but had no children)
Anantachar
Shamachar
Adopted son plaintiff Yesvanta Rao (Respondent.)

3. The plaintiff relies upon a deed of gift dated 1835 which is alleged to have been suppressed by the other side and of which therefore he produces a copy. The genuineness of this document is impugned and has not been satisfactorily established. Reliance is placed upon the order of Government in Appeal No. 188 of 1892-93 in which a reference has been made to a gift in favor of Krishnachar, but it appears clear that reference cannot have the force of a finding, occurring as it does, not in the body of the decision, but in the resume of the facts of the case. It cannot moreover affect the defendant who was not a party to that proceeding. Certain statements made on diverse occasions by Krishnabayi are next relied on, but the Government are of opinion that there is nothing in those statements to justify the contention based upon them. They do not necessarily show that the gift was one made either in Krishnachar's sole name or for his own benefit. The defendant cannot moreover be held bound by them or by the kabar executed by Krishnabayi to Anantachar in 1879. The conduct, of the defendant's husband Seshagiriachar is said to militate against the defendants present assertion, but here too Government are unable to agree with the authorities below. Krishnabayi undoubtedly had an interest in the subject-matter of this litigation and the fact that she was assisted by Seshagiriachar in the conduct of certain proceedings connected with the assertion of that interest and in the performance of puja in the temple, does not show that the latter had himself no interest in the hak or that he was estopped from asserting it. Lastly, certain Jari Inamti accounts have been relied upon as evidence of Krishnachar's exclusive ownership. In the view, however, that Government have taken of the case, these accounts cannot be accepted as conclusive evidence, contradicted as they are by an earlier account the authenticity of which they see no reason to question.

4. And now coming to the case set up by the defendant, Government find that in addition to the evidence which will be referred to later on, the balance of probabilities is quite in its favor. Balachar had no interest in Krishnachar except as the husband of one of his nieces, and he was not therefore likely to have given away his property to him to the detriment not only of that niece, but also of the other niece. The disposition evidenced by the deed of gift relied upon by the defendant is a perfectly natural one. Balachar was anxious that the hak should not pass out of the family and he accordingly gave it to both these girls at the time of their marriage with the condition attached that, in the event of one of them dying without male issue her half share should pass to the other. As regards the evidence, Government are satisfied that the document comes from proper custody and that it has all the appearance of a genuine instrument. Being a very old document, the law presumes its genuineness. It is engrossed upon a stamp paper expressly purchased for the purpose. Its existence was referred to in a deposition given by Krishnabayi so far back as 5th February 1889. Again a plaint filed by herself and Seshagiriachar on 8th September 1891 makes mention of it. The Assistant Commissioner is in error in suspecting that it must have come into existence in 1893 when the case between Krishnabayi and Shamachar was before Government. The gift in favor of both the nieces represented by their husbands has been expressly mentioned in the marginal note to the Jari Inamti account for the year 1831. There is nothing suspicious about this note. It is in the same handwriting as the rest of the account and its age and appearance must be given due weight. The only thing that could be said against it is that the copy maintained in the Huzur records does not contain a similar note. Government do not however attach much importance to this circumstance, inasmuchas the last mentioned paper does not profess to be a verbatim copy of the original. is shorter and less descriptive, and this is not the only shara which is found in the iginal but is absent in the copy. It is noteworthy that even the admitted gift of rtain Bhatawanyam lands to Subbannachar in 1831 which is referred to in the iginal by a marginal shara, has not found a corresponding place in the said copy, even in the copy for the two subsequent years.

5. The conduct of Seshagiriachar throughout seems to show that he always egarded himself as the owner of a half share in the hak in question. Neither the ossession of Krishnachar who died in 1876 nor that of Krishnabayi who died in 1896 as been shown to have been adverse to Rangubayi or her son Seshagiriachar.

6. Under these circumstances, Government have no hesitation in coming to the conclusion that the plaintiff has not substantiated his case while the defendant has.

7. There remains the question whether in spite of the above finding the suit is entitled to succeed. Government are of opinion that it is not. The plaintiff can only claim as a lineal descendant of Krishnachar. But that individual had no title of his own to the hak, having merely been his wife's agent in regard to her half share which, on the death of that woman without male issue, passed under the terms of the gift to her sister's son the defendant's husband Seshagiriachar, who already owned the other half; and on the latter's demise the whole descended to the defendant under the law succession. The law recognizes gifts of this kind, i.e., gifts accompanied by a condition that the property should pass to another in a particular event, vide Mayne's Hindu Law, 5th Edition, para 350. That being so, it follows that the defendant's title is unassailable and that the plaintiff's suit should be thrown out.

8. The appeal is accordingly allowed and the suit dismissed.

No. 3572—Muz. F. 5-99, dated Bangalore, 20th May 1904.

Copy of the above is forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, together with the records received with his letters Nos. 309 and 101, dated the 30th May and the 31st October 1903.

R A. No. 30 of 04-05

Petitioners :-
(1) Yeswantha Rao minor by guardian Bheema Rao.
(2) Gouda Bai widow of Shama Char 1st Plaintiff adopted father minor by guardian Bheema Rao.

~~Df~~

Counter Petitioner
Rama Bai widow of Seshagiriachar

The Petitioners abovenamed respectfully beg to prefer this Rev. Petition against the decision of the learned Councillors in Rev. appeal No 91 of 1903-04 dated 20th May '04 for the following among other reasons

(1) That the Pujah hak of the mukhya Prana Devaru temple of Hanasoge Yedatore Taluq belong to one Balachar who made a gift of it to his brothers' son-in-law one Krishna Char in 1835.

(2) That on the death of the said Krishnachar leaving his widow Krishna Bai the pujah used to be performed by the 1st Petitioners grand father Anantha Char who was the undivided nephew of the aforesaid Krishnachar

(3) That when the said Anantachar had performed the pujah for a period of three years disputes arose between him and Krishna Bai candies of paddy out of the produce of the Inamti lands attached to the office and allow the said Krishnabai to be in enjoyment of the remaining produce.

(5) That after the death of the said Ananthachar his son Shamachar performed the pujah for a period of 7 or 8 years and afterwards the said Krishnabai petitioned to the Mysore authorities that her fathers son (the co-petitioners husband) should be nominated to perform the pujah in preference to the said Shamachar and thereupon the said Seshagiriachar was appointed for the place and refused the father of the 1st Petitioner the said Shamachar to a regular suit.

(6) That after the death of the said Shamachar and Krishnabai the petitioners filed a suit on the Mysore side to establish their right to succeed to the Inam which had been gifted to their ancestor Krishnachar before the Amildar of Yedatore Taluq and it was decreed in their favor.

(7) That on appeal the Mysore Assistant Commissioner of the Mysore Dist upheld the Lower Court Decree and dismissed the appeal prescribed by the Co-Petitioners' husband.

(8) That in second appeal the learned Councillors upset the Decrees of the Lower Courts on grounds which the petitioners submit require reconsideration as the order has the effect of depriving the petitioners of valuable properties and means of livelihood.

(9) That the last sentence of the aforesaid Karar of the year 1879 most clearly recites that the original Samad pertaining to the kuk and also the original deed of gift executed by Balachar in favor of Krishnachar were given over to the custody of Krishna Bai.

(10) That the possession of these two documents was given to her with a view to enforce strict obedience on the part of Anantha Char the executant of the Karar to the terms thereof and also to give the said Krishna Bai a hold over Anantha Char of the due performance of the pujah.

(11) That on 31.7.1883 before the Amildar of Yedatore she has deposed in clear terms that the kuk was gifted to her husband by her uncle in the original kukdar Balachar and that she has arranged for the performance of the pujah by her husbands' nephew Anantha Char on payment to him of 10 Candis of paddy

(12) That again on 27-6-84 the said Krishna Bai has deposed in unambiguous terms before the Amildar of Yedatore that the pujah kuk belong to her husband and that she was enjoying a greater portion of the produce following the year in which the gift was made.

(14) That the original Karar having framed to the custody of Krishnabai as explained above she in collusion with her sisters son ie the Cr: Petitioners husband suppressed it and in its place concocted a deed of gift alleged to have been made by the said Balachar in favor of his neices Krishnabai and Rangubai

(15) That the fact is that the said Balachar made a gift of the Bhramadaya lands to his brothers 2° son-in-law ie the Cr: Counter petitioners father-in-law in the year 1881.

(16) That after the aforesaid Collusion between Krishnabai and Seshagirachar the said deed of gift relating to Bhramadaya lands alone was also suppressed and in its place the forged deed of gift of both Bhramadaya and devadaya lands Combined was brought into existence so as to give it an appearance of genuineness.

(17) That no mention is made either in the accounts maintained by government or in any sort of Government records of the forged deed of gift.

(18) That the forged deed of gift saw the light of day for the first time in the year 1892 when Krishna Bai's Case against Shama Char was being argued before Councillor in Petition 188 of 1892-93.

(19) That the petitioners submit that the terms of the aforesaid forged deed themselves throw a great deal of suspicion as to its genuineness inasmuch as the clause that in the event of one of the donees dying issueless the other should take the whole lot is one which would hardly find a place in deeds of gift as are commonly executed by orthodox Hindus.

(20) That except in a marginal note of Jari Enamti account of 1832 of the Taluq of Arkalgud which is not found in a Copy of the Same account kept in the Dewans office there is no mention whatever in Government records.

(21) That the fact of Krishna Bais taking possession of the original deed of gift in favour of Petitioners' ancestor Krishnachar accounts for the non-production of the original by the petitioners in the original Court.

(22) That the learned Councillors have attached an undue value to some State-ments made by the ex: Petitioners husband in Some plaint filed by him

Krishnabai executing a Will and subsequently a deed of gift also in his favour (viz Ext 19)

(24) That the Petitioners most humbly submit that there is overwhelming evidence in support of their allegations before all the Courts while the cr: Petitioners allegations are not supported either by Government or private records.

(25) That the Government may be pleased to order an enquiry as to the genuineness or otherwise of the alleged deed of gift produced by the cr. Petitioners' husband for a finding by a Competent Civil Court and then finally decide the question.

(26) That the petitioners further submit that the Government may be pleased to refer the several intricate points of law for the opinion of the Chief Court.

(27) That the order of Government being final the petitioners pray that every Concession may be shown to them by giving them a hearing to represent their aspect of the case for favour of reconsideration.

(28) That the Petitioners further humbly

pray that this Hon'ble Government may be pleased to direct that the execution of the order appealed against be stayed pending the decision of the present petition

For these reasons the petitioners most humbly pray that this Hon'ble Government may be pleased to go through the entire records of the case and to set aside the order which has been passed depriving them of the right enjoyed by their family for a long period of years.

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Review Application No. 3 of 1904-05.

Petitioners.

1. Yeswant Rao.
2. Gothu Baye, minors by guardian Bhima Rao.

Subject.

Application for a review of G. O. No. 3572-Muz. F.—5-99, dated the 20th May 1904, recognizing the claim of Pillu Baye alias Rama Baye to the Puja hak of the Anjaneyaswami temple at Hanasoge in the Yedatore Taluk and the Inam lands attached thereto.

Order.

This is an application for the review of Government decision in Appeal Case No. 91 of 1903-04.

The case hinges on the point whether or not the deed of gift by which Balachar made over the property in dispute to his nieces on certain conditions is genuine. The facts that it is engrossed on a stamp paper purchased for the purpose, that its existence has been referred to by Krishna Baye in her deposition in 1889, and again in the plaint presented by her and Seshagiriachar in 1891, clearly establish beyond a shadow of doubt that the document is a genuine one. Balachar could have no special interest in only one of his nieces, namely Krishna Baye, as the plaintiff now contends. To perpetuate in the family the Puja hak as well as the enjoyment of the Inam lands attached to the temple, it is natural he gifted away half share to each of his nieces on condition that it should pass into the hands of the surviving niece should the other die without male issue. After full consideration of the above and other facts adduced in the case, it was ordered that the defendant was entitled to the Puja hak as well as the Inam lands. Government see no reason to reconsider the decision in the absence of any fresh grounds, and direct that the review application be rejected.

No 2889—Mu. F. 5-99, DATED BANGALORE, 10TH FEBRUARY 1905.

Copy of the above is forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner of the Mysore District for information.
